As the season begins, have teams hold meetings with players' parents.

- Determine whether the team will travel as a group or individually to the championships.
- If traveling as a group, determine who will be the decision maker for the group.
- Encourage families to discuss the possibility of traveling to Orlando and determine who from their family would attend.
- Determine your preferred mode of travel, air or ground transportation.
- Determine how you will pay for the reservation.
- Begin fundraising to help offset expenses at the end of the season.
