

Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc.
2010 National Convention
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's)

» Who Should Attend the National Convention in May?

The Convention is primarily geared towards Pop Warner coaches and league and association administrators interested in learning more about Pop Warner. There are 3 separate tracks: administrative, football coaching and cheer and dance coaching, or you may opt to take both the administrative plus one coaching track.

» Why Should I Attend the National Convention in May?

To meet coaches and administrators from Pop Warner programs across the country and exchange ideas, to learn proper techniques, to hear from renowned football and cheerleading and dance instructors, to find out more about how Pop Warner functions in order to build a successful program, to speak with regional and national staff, and to celebrate our 50th Anniversary All-American Banquet.

» Where is the National Convention and Banquet Held?

This year's banquet and national convention is in Philadelphia, Pa. at the Pennsylvania Convention Center and Downtown Marriott. In 2011, the event will be in Chicago and in 2012 it will be in Orlando, FL.

» What is the National Convention Dress Code?

The Convention is Business Casual attire. For our 50th Anniversary Banquet in Philadelphia, the event is Black Tie Optional, but formal or business dress is perfectly acceptable. However, please no shorts, t-shirts, sneakers, jerseys or flip flops. If you have any questions on the dress code, please contact the National Office at 215-752-2691 ex 22.

» How Do I Register for the Convention and the Banquet?

All registration will be done online at www.popwarner.com.

» What if I Have Additional Questions?

The National Office staff is ready to help with any of your convention or banquet questions. Please call us at 215-752-2691 ext. 22 or 23, or email bethdietz@popwarner.com.